2. Cacadu and crane flew in without a plane; struggling 'bout some golden thing.
 Sad old elephant blew a wild romantic chant and some native bears sat 'round them in a ring.
 Cormoran and crow sang songs from long ago and the frill neck lizard listened with a smile.
 Emu standing near with sharp claws and open ear laughed: 'The funnest sound I've heard for quite awhile!'

3. Frogs from out the swamp where the atmosphere is damp came bounding in and sat upon the stones.
 They had all small instruments 'nd formed little noisy bands, clapped their hands and blew in wooden horns.
 Crocodil and aligator could not wait for one day later but they danced and showed the world real joy.
 Magpie sang in mighty oak; Jackass cracked another joke; the boss yelled, 'where are all the sheep'.
