

Rattler

Adapted of an American song

1. Old Rat - tl - er was a good old dog, as blind as he could be.

3 Ev - 'ry night at me - al - time, it seemed that dog could see. Here, Rat - tl - er, here, here;

6 here, Rat - tl - er, here; call old Rat - tl - er from the barn; here, Rat - tl - er, here.

2. Old Rattler treed the other night, thought he treed a coon,
When I came to find out, he was barking at the moon.
Here, Rattler, here, here; here, Rattler, here;
call old Rattler from the barn; here, Rattler, here.

3. Old Rattler was a smart old dog, even though blind, wouldn't hurt a single thing, no; he was very fine.
call old Rattler from the barn; here, Rattler, here.

4. One night there was a big fat coon, climb up in a tree.
called old Rattler right away, to get him down for me.
call old Rattler from the barn; here, Rattler, here.

5 But he wouldn't do it, 'cause he licked that coon;
they were walking paw in paw, later by the light of moon.
Here, Rattler, here, here; here, Rattler, here;
call old Rattler from the barn; here, Rattler, here.

6. Now old Rattler's dead and gone, like all good dogs once will do.
Don't be as a dog yourself, 'cause you'll be going there too.
call old Rattler from the barn; here, Rattler, here.
